

One of the most promising youngsters in Singapore who are training in Bharatanatyam, Divya Ramesh performed her Arangetram in the summer of 2013. A student of Smt Gayatri Sriram, Divya has trained in the Kalakshetra style of Bharatanatyam. Divya has given solo performances in Bengaluru, California, Chennai and Singapore to critical acclaim. She performed during the December 2014 Music and Dance season at Bharat Kalachar and Krishna Gana Sabha, Chennai, and at the Ananya Samarpana 2015 festival which raises awareness for the medical helpline run by Ananya Trust.

Divya was selected as the Upcoming Artiste at Samarpana –the Asian Festival of Classical Dance, 2015, Singapore and in the SIFAS Festival of Indian Classical Music and Dance 2014 in the Rising Stars category.

Divya is the recipient of the Lakshmi Vishwanathan Award for Excellence in Abhinaya in Dance for her performance at Sri Krishna Gana Sabha's 59th Art & Music Festival (January 2015 in Chennai).

Reviewed by Dr. Surya Prasad Rao of New Indian Express as displaying 'spirited and flawless exhibition of talent', Divya is poised to make her mark as a soloist in the world of dance.

For more information log on to www.divyaramesh.com